PARISH VISION STATEMENT

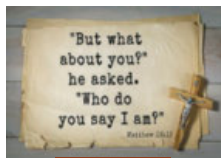

WE, the parish of Our Lady of Victory, proclaim with joy the presence of Jesus in the world through Word, Sacrament, and deed. It is through our discipleship that we recognize our connection to God, our neighbor, and our deepest spiritual selves.

WE seek to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ by: + Welcoming all with kindness, compassion and hospitality + Nourishing the faith life of the community through prayer, fellowship and education + Reverencing the dignity of each person by celebrating the beauty of life from conception to natural death + Nurturing the gifts of all so that each person may live out his or her unique and personal call from God + Caring for the needs of the less fortunate by empowering our parish community to answer that call.

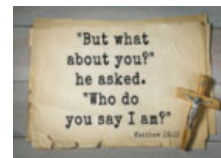

WE, do this in the name of Jesus Christ and the mandate: “See those Christians how they love one another!”

Mass from OLV live-streamed on YouTube
 Saturday at 5:30 pm

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome back to Msgr. Jim McNamara who joins us here at OLV while he is home from Rome for the summer. After another year of serving as a spiritual director for young priests and seminarians in Rome, Monsignor joins us until August 10th when he will return to Rome. It is a blessing for our parish, and me personally, to have his presence among us!

While Monsignor and Fr. Daniel are both here the next few weeks, I'll be taking some vacation time during the week, while returning for the weekends.

Solemnity of Ss. Peter & Paul

Each year June 29th is celebrated as the Solemnity of Saints Peter & Paul, and since this year it falls on a Sunday, we all celebrate this feast together, remembering the martyrdoms of both these great Saints.

Then this feast is immediately followed by the Feast of the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome on June 30th. The blood of the earliest martyrs resulted in the incredible growth of the early church.

But the days of martyrdom are not over. The Catholic News Agency reports regularly on tragic events of martyrdom that are occurring today - especially in places like Nigeria and Sudan. This past Sunday 22 people were killed while attending services in a Greek Orthodox Church in Damascus, Syria.

Patriotic Rosary & Mass

We will pray the Patriotic Rosary this Monday, June 30th at 7 pm in anticipation of our celebration of Independence Day on Friday.

Also please join us for Mass on Friday, the 4th of July at 8:30 am. Mass will include patriotic hymns.

Appreciation from Fr. Daniel

Fr. Daniel asked me to express his appreciation to everyone who was involved with the Memorial Mass for his father on June 19th. The presence of so many clergy, parishioners, and visiting friends was a source of consolation to him. As always, the choir and musicians added much to the spirit of the Mass. Special thanks to the ladies of the Altar Rosary Society who provided such a great reception after the Mass.

Respite Nights

I want to thank everyone who is involved in our Respite Nights for persons with special needs. Maureen Russell, our director of Parish Outreach, does a great job of organizing her team of adults and K of C volunteers, and youth buddies to provide a great experience for our special friends! Special thanks also to Dalton Funeral Home for sponsoring the respite nights.

Praised be the name of Jesus Christ
now and forever!

A Reflection About Family

By Emma Tobak—Class of 2025
Shared at Graduation, June 13, 2025

As we step into this new phase of our lives, I believe it is of utmost importance to address the people in the room who have shaped us from the very beginning and supported us through everything in and beyond school: our families. From the moment we entered this journey of life, we've been loved by someone—a parent, a guardian, a sibling, or a grandparent. There was always someone to pick us up when we fell, someone to teach us the difference between right and wrong, and someone who taught us how to be good people. The job was never easy, but you chose to stay anyway. You showed up, attending games and cheering in the stands, watching concerts or Thankful Thursdays, being a personal Uber for your child and possibly their friends. You were always there, watching us grow into who we are today. You reminded us that we are cared for and that you were fond of every version of us, loving us unconditionally—even when you had to go out at 10 o'clock at night because your child didn't do the project they had two weeks to complete.

As we moved up to middle school, it was not only a hard adjustment for us but also for you. We grew in many ways, going from calling our mothers and fathers "Mom" and "Dad" to calling them "Bro." We started thinking and speaking for ourselves. We rebelled and didn't always do the right thing, but you loved us anyway, once again, unconditionally. I really like the word "unconditionally" because the love it holds is rare and precious. It allows us to look past differences or arguments and to love deeply, regardless of anything—with no limit, infinitely. If there's anyone we can count on for that kind of love, it's our families. The same people who held us in the hospital are sitting here today, perhaps with a few more gray hairs than before, but still, the same individuals.

In addition to thanking our parents and guardians, I want to take a moment to recognize our siblings. You have been our first friends, our partners in crime, and sometimes our biggest rivals. Throughout our lives, you were always there when we needed a laugh or a shoulder to cry on. Thank you for the memories we share, from silly chats at 2 a.m. to serious conversations we simply can't have with anyone else. Thank you for teaching us how to have thick skin while also hyping us up and giving us confidence. Thank you for being our perfect balance in the chaos of everyday life and for standing up for us no matter what.

I've heard a saying by Jim Rohn that claims, "You're the average of the five people you spend the most time with." If you think about it, you'll start to notice how accurate it is. Our families are the windows to our souls, our first role models. When you notice yourself saying things your family used to say or practicing the same mannerisms you've seen your parents demonstrate, it's a reflection of that. We, as people, are so interlinked, picking up pieces of others as we go along. But at the end of the day, our rock, our foundation, is our families. You started the collage of the person we've come to be and gave us the resources to succeed.

As I wrap up, I'd like to give one more thank you to everyone here tonight and to our families, both here and in heaven. Thank you for being our light in the darkness. We can't wait to begin this next chapter of our lives with you by our side.
