PARISH VISION STATEMENT

WE, the parish of Our Lady of Victory, proclaim with joy the presence of Jesus in the world through Word, Sacrament, and deed. It is through our discipleship that we recognize our connection to God, our neighbor, and our deepest spiritual selves.

WE seek to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ by: + Welcoming all with kindness, compassion and hospitality + Nourishing the faith life of the community through prayer, fellowship and education + Reverencing the dignity of each person by celebrating the beauty of life from conception to natural death + Nurturing the gifts of all so that each person may live out his or her unique and personal call from God + Caring for the needs of the less fortunate by empowering our parish community to answer that call.

WE, do this in the name of Jesus Christ and the mandate: “See those Christians how they love one another!”

Mass from OLV live-streamed on YouTube
 Saturday at 5:30 pm

Dear Parishioners,

I mentioned in last week's letter that this week I would discuss some of the issues connected to weddings taking place in the church. A wedding celebration is a graced, sacramental moment - which means it's an opportunity to experience the presence of God in a direct and powerful way. That's why the Church takes it so seriously and why we ask members of the Church to do the same.

Roman Catholics who are free to marry are required to exchange their vows in the presence of a priest or deacon and two witnesses. In the Diocese of Rockville Centre this must take place in a church building. Here are the benefits of entering into marriage as a sacrament:

- * You are making a public statement of your intention to enter into a marriage that is life-long, faithful, and open to children.
- * You can be assured of God's grace and presence in your marriage
- * You can continue to receive Holy Communion at Mass and to receive the other sacraments
- * You can serve as a godparent or Confirmation sponsor if asked

So what if you - or a family member choose to be married outside the church? I know this is the cause for much heartache for parents and grandparents. It's important to understand the reason for their decision. Here are some:

*if both parties are free to be married in the church (that means were not previously married), but they wanted a venue other than a church for their exchange of vows, they can still easily receive the sacrament of marriage in the church. It would be important for them to do this. It is called a convalidation — recognizing that they are already validly married in the eyes of the state, and wish to have their marriage validated in the Church. I have even done convalidations at the same time as the baptism of their child.

*if they were married outside the church because one or both parties were previously married, then they could talk to a priest about what it would require for them to have the first marriage(s) declared null. Sometimes the process is simple, sometimes it is more extensive depending on the circumstances.

*if they were married outside the church because they do not have faith in God or do not want to be a part of the Church, then their family members have to respect their decision, while continuing to pray for their conversion of heart.

An interesting development in the celebration of weddings has been the exchange of vows in a simple ceremony, with just immediate family and friends present in the church, and then a larger reception happening at a later date. I have had positive experiences of these types of weddings because of their simplicity and focus on the essentials. I encourage the couple to let it be known at their later reception that they were married in the church prior to the celebration, so their family and friends know they entered into marriage as a sacrament.

My advice to parents and grandparents is to let your expectations be known to your children and grandchildren from the time they are teenagers - don't wait until they are engaged! Let them know that choosing to enter into marriage not as a sacrament is a serious rejection of their Catholic life.

I'd be happy to discuss any individual circumstances with you. Please email with your questions or to make an appointment. tfusco@olvfpny.org

DID YOU KNOW...

According to Consumer Affairs “on average, cell phone users look at their phones 144 times a day”.

Today, let us choose to reject the worship of our phones and spend more time in silence reflection on the more important questions of life.

- ⇒ Who am I?
- ⇒ Where did I come from?
- ⇒ What happens when we die?

Let us stay ahead of “A.I.” and get our answers from God...

Pass On the Gift of Faith!

Almost 900 children and young people in Grades 1 through 8 will enroll this fall to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. You can help them learn and grow by becoming a catechist in the Faith Formation program. Our program is a vibrant and very important part of the Our Lady of Victory parish community. With classes offered Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings you are almost sure to find a time that fits your schedule. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well!

We provide you with training, materials, and support. If you are interested in becoming a catechist, a teacher's helper or you would like to volunteer as a hall monitor please contact the Faith Formation Office.

This is also a wonderful opportunity for our High School students who are looking to fulfill their service projects and requirements. It is certainly a great way to practice your faith, share your faith and live your faith. It also enables you to become more active members of your parish community!

Order of the Imitation of Christ
O.I.C

On the weekend of August 16 & 17, Fr. Shibi Pappan OIC, Pastor of St. Ignatius of Loyola Church in Hicksville, will speak at our masses about the Order of the Imitation of Christ, a religious order founded by Venerable Mar Ivanio. This will be our Annual Mission Collection.

This Catholic community is devoted to imitating Jesus Christ through prayer, compassion, penance and service.

Where we serve:

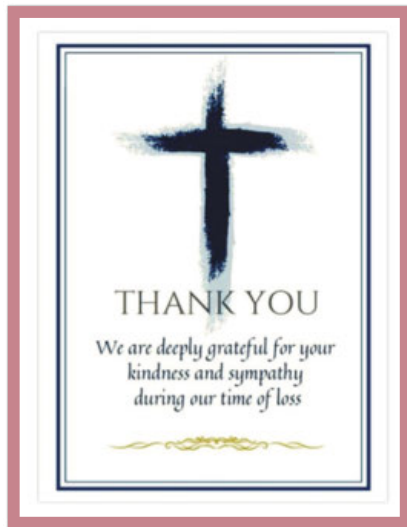

- India: Serving the sick, poor, homeless and afflicted
- Africa (Ethiopia): Mission centers, boys' home, schools, clinics and agriculture projects
- Europe: Parishes, pilgrim centers, missions and theological studies
- United States: Parishes, hospital ministries—serving the Diocese of Rockville Centre over 50years
- Philippines: Mission outreach, hospital chaplaincy and formation

How Can You Help:

- Pray for our missionaries and ministries
- Donate to support our mission efforts
- Sponsor a seminarian to help prepare future missionaries

If you would like to learn more about the Bethany Monastery (OIC) or support our missions, feel free to reach out to us bethanymonastery@gmail.com or through your parish office.

Fr. Shibi is looking forward to coming to our parish. Please welcome Fr. Shibi with your generosity.

A sincere thank you to all who expressed their condolences on the death of my sister Alice. Your kinds words, cards and presence at her Mass were a great comfort to me, my family and a testament to the faith of the OLV community.

Thank you,
Deacon Larry Mulligan

Global Medical Brigade Appeal

In the spring of this past year, Joseph Petrosino, a member of our parish, and 14 other college students travelled to Panama with the Catholic University of America's chapter of Global Medical Brigades.

The mission of the Global Medical Brigades is to provide remote, impoverished areas worldwide with the medical care and supplies they so desperately need. The University students raise funds for and provide volunteers for the medical clinics. The students work with the medical doctors and gain hands-on medical experience for their future. Their work benefits those in need of medical care, as well as giving life-changing experiences to future medical personnel.

Last year, parishioners of Our Lady of Victory donated nearly $1,000 in support of Joseph's chapter of Global Medical Brigades. These donations were critical in providing life saving medicine, lodging, food, and transportation for the volunteers of the brigade. Without the support of these donations, these students would not be able to provide this care.

Please consider donating to this cause either online at <https://fundraise.globalbrigades.org/empowered/chapter/the-catholic-university-of-america-medical-chapter/brigade/catholic-university-medical-brigade-march-2026-panama> or by sending a check to: Catholic University Campus Activities, with the notation "Global Medical Brigades" on the memo line. Thank you for your support!

Checks can be sent directly or dropped off at the rectory and Joseph will pick them up.
