PARISH VISION STATEMENT

Jane Parrinelli

WE, the parish of Our Lady of Victory, proclaim with joy the presence of Jesus in the world through Word, Sacrament, and deed. It is through our discipleship that we recognize our connection to God, our neighbor, and our deepest spiritual selves.

WE seek to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ by: + Welcoming all with kindness, compassion and hospitality + Nourishing the faith life of the community through prayer, fellowship and education + Reverencing the dignity of each person by celebrating the beauty of life from conception to natural death + Nurturing the gifts of all so that each person may live out his or her unique and personal call from God +Caring for the needs of the less fortunate by empowering our parish community to answer that call.

WE, do this in the name of Jesus Christ and the mandate: "See those Christians how they love one another!"

Dear Parishioners,

The message this week comes from Msgr. McNamara:

Fr. Tom wrote that I would be staying till September 4. The reason is that I discovered a growth on my back. A biopsy revealed that it was an invasive deep melanoma, alarming in its initial description. I had surgery on August 15th, the feast of the Assumption.

This began a journey of uncertainty and fear on a human level. At first I thought this was an interruption that I needed to get passed but I came to see it as a moment to embrace in the Lord.

I would like to share the spiritual dimensions of this journey. It was a movement from fear to faith.

In 1998 my sister Mary was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. She said the hardest part of the day was in the middle of the night. I took a holy card and wrote what Jesus said to Jairus who was told his daughter had died. Jesus said: "Fear is useless; what is needed is trust." (Mark 5:36) When Mary woke up in the night she would read the quote and "get back on track."

That quote has sustained me in these days.

In the normal course of the day I use certain prayers and Scripture passages to keep my heart attuned to Christ. I offer them to you.

I love you, Lord. You are my strength. I trust you, Lord. You are my hope. I believe you, Lord. You are my Savior.

I adore you, O Christ and I praise you for by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

"Create a clean heat in me, O God; renew in me a steadfast spirit." (Psalm 51:12)

And finally, this beautiful invitation from the wise and gentle Christ:

"Come to me all you who are weary and find life burdensome and I will refresh you. Take my yoke upon your shoulders and learn from me for I am gentle and humble of heart. Your souls will find rest for my yoke is easy and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:28-30)

God sent many angels to me both here and in the hospital. Fr. Tom was at the top of the list.

The darkest part of the night is just before the dawn. The pet scan showed I am clear of the cancer. Amen. Alleluia! Christ is risen!

May the Lord give you peace.

Fr. Jim McNamara

We are grateful to God for Fr. Jim's recovery.

Additional Nursery Class

Our Lady of Victory School is opening a third Nursery class (3 year olds) because of the strong demand. As a result of opening the additional class there are now 3 available spots for new students. Join us for Popsicles on the Playground on Tuesday, Aug. 26th at 6 pm in the schoolyard for more information about our Early Education Program.

Travel Plans

Fr. Daniel will be returning from Ghana this week and I'll be taking some time away. Next weekend, August 29-31, I'll be on the North Fork celebrating the wedding of my niece Sarah Biscardi to Hunter Wyckoff.

Then I plan on travelling to Rome with Msgr. McNamara on September 4th so I can be present at the canonization Mass for Blessed Carlo Acutis and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati on Sunday, September 7th. I'll be returning on September 10th.

Praised be the name of Jesus Christ now and forever!

Fr. Tom

Stop Physician-Assisted Suicide in New York

New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto — and she needs to hear from you.

This bill would allow doctors to prescribe lethal medication with the sole purpose of ending a patient's life. It puts the most vulnerable among us — the elderly, people with disabilities, and those facing emotional or financial despair — at even greater risk. Sulcide is not healthcare.

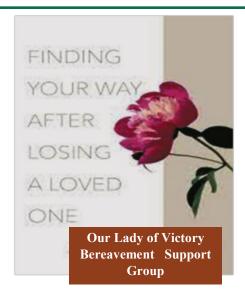

We must speak out to protect the dignity of every human life. Assisted suicide is a dangerous and deadly path — one we must not go down.

Take Action!

Contact the Governor's office now to oppose this deadly practice! Visit blt.ly/veto-pas or use the QR code.

The New York State Catholic Conference represents the Bishops of New York State in public policy matters

A Bereavement Support Group will begin on Tuesday, September 2nd and continue for 8 weeks on Tuesday evenings at 7pm.

If you are experiencing the grief and pain associated with the loss of a loved one, please consider joining our group. For more information please contact Maureen at 718-343-3242.

Go to Donate on our homepage on OLV's website www.olvfpny.org

Welcome to Our Lady of Victory Parish!

Please stop by the Rectory to become a parishioner at OLV. A simple census card is filled out and a parish number is assigned.

The Society of St. de Paul's OLV Conference wishes to thank all our neighbors, fellow parishioners and friends who have been able to maintain their tremendous support of our efforts over the last year. If these challenging times have taught us anything, it is how blessed we are in this wonderful parish where people come together to help those in need. Unfortunately, the needs of our neighbors persist.

You can help us once again by participating in the 17th Annual "Friends of the Poor Walk", on Saturday, Sept 27th on the feast day of St. Vincent de Paul. Like last year, our part in this Long Island wide event will take place right here in our own village of Floral Park. We will provide additional information as the event nears—so please watch the bulletin for details.

EASILY DISTRACTED AT MASS ?

I recently came across this article that I thought would help anyone who gets distracted easily at Mass, including those with ADHD. The whole article can be found at:

https://aleteia.org/2025/08/16/3-tips-for-participating-in-mass-with-adhd/

by Lauren Enriquez

One challenge I've always had is focusing at Mass. No matter how good my intentions are, I get extremely distracted at Mass. What was the homily about? I don't know, but I can tell you all about the six variations on my favorite cookie recipe I thought up during the Gospel reading.

Here are the two things that have made the biggest impact on my ability to focus at Mass.

1: Sit in the front of the church.

By sitting in the front of the church, you're drastically reducing the number of things that could distract you during Mass. Having many people in your field of vision is a lot for your brain to process – or to try not to process – during Mass.

You know the thoughts: Is that guy asleep?

Ooooh, I love her earrings. I wonder if she got them at Target. Speaking of Target, I need to use that $5 coupon before it expires ...

How many thorns are there in the crown on Jesus' head on the crucifix?

If you're someone who gravitates toward the back of the church (or who is chronically late to Mass), it might be a little intimidating to stake out a seat up front. I recommend showing up at least 15 minutes early to grab a seat in one of the first pews near the sanctuary.

Use the time before Mass to read the Gospel (or all of the Mass readings) ahead of time.

Bonus: You may be surprised how much reading ahead helps you focus on the readings when they're proclaimed during Mass.

2: Read along.

A lot of the Mass involves reciting prayers we memorized as children or listening to the lectors, cantors, and celebrants reciting prayers and proclaiming the readings.

It is so easy for the easily distracted mind to "float away" (my son's words describing to me what happens to his brain when his teacher is lecturing at school) when it is not actively engaged in an activity. Reading along with the Mass engages another sense (sight) and helps us plug our brains in more fully to what is happening.

There are many ways to follow along with the Mass and the readings. Try out different options to see what feels enjoyable and sustainable to you. Using the misalette is the easiest solution.

Jesus doesn't reject your distracted brain, so you shouldn't either.

The Lord is gentle and patient with us. He is happy that we came to Mass to spend time with Him.. So if you're easily distracted, a little strategy can go a long way in aiding your focus at Mass.
