Dear Parishioners,

Happy Labor Day &
Welcome Back to School!

My work is not physically exhausting. It might be emotionally trying and intellectually challenging, but it certainly isn't physically exhausting. It's been wittily acknowledged that a priest's hands are made for chalices, not callouses!

That is why I have always been in awe of people who earn their living by the sweat of their brow. It's not that the work of office workers and financiers and teachers and clergy and white collar workers isn't worthwhile, I just want to highlight and acknowledge manual laborers on Labor Day weekend this year.

Thank you to those who work outside in the heat of summer and cold of winter, using manly (and womanly) brawn to achieve great things - farmers, construction workers, tradesmen and all sorts of manual laborers. You are appreciated! I hope you get the day off - you deserve the break!

Welcome Back to School!

First, to the students - welcome back to another year where your minds, bodies and souls will grow tremendously!

My annual beginning of the school year advice to all students:

Pray, it will keep you close to God

Study, it is how you will learn

Be Kind, it will lead to having friends

Follow the Rules, so everyone is safe

Next, to the teachers - you've been entrusted with these families most cherished treasure - their children. My advice to educators:

Model Christian behavior - you teach more by what you do than by what you say
Teach the Truth - be faithful, not faithless!
Love - your students as your own children
Create Catholic Memories - to last a lifetime!

Upcoming Events

Wednesday, September 3rd - OLV School opens & the Parish Staff meets and the Parish Council meets for the start of a new parish year.

Sunday, September 14th - Food Truck Festival in the Schoolyard. All parishioners are welcome to this event that is being organized by the Home School Association of OLV School for all parishioners.

Come by after the noon Mass until 3:30 pm. Purchase your lunch from one of the food trucks and enjoy the company of fellow parishioners!

Praised be the name of Jesus Christ
now and forever!

Fr. Tom

The Society of St. de Paul's OLV Conference wishes to thank all our neighbors, fellow parishioners and friends who have been able to maintain their tremendous support of our efforts over the last year. If these challenging times have taught us anything, it is how blessed we are in this wonderful parish where people come together to help those in need. Unfortunately, the needs of our neighbors persist.

You can help us once again by participating in the 17th Annual "Friends of the Poor Walk", on Saturday, Sept 27th on the feast day of St. Vincent de Paul. Like last year, our part in this Long Island wide event will take place right here in our own village of Floral Park. We will provide additional information as the event nears—so please watch the bulletin for details.

Almighty God, we give you our school. We give you all the teachers and staff who work here; we give you all the children who study here. We pray our school would be place of great discovery, adventure and creativity. May it be a place where we love to learn and where we learn to love, a place where every one is respected and all are deeply valued. We ask all this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
