The Epiphany of the Lord, January 4, 2026

They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

WE seek to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ by: + Welcoming all with kindness, compassion and hospitality + Nourishing the faith life of the community through prayer, fellowship and education + Reverencing the dignity of each person by celebrating the beauty of life from conception to natural death + Nurturing the gifts of all so that each person may live out his or her unique and personal call from God +Caring for the needs of the less fortunate by empowering our parish community to answer that call.

WE, do this in the name of Jesus Christ and the mandate: "See those Christians how they love one another!"

MEMORIALS

 donated in memory
 of Gerald McGowan Jr.*

Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year!

May we all face the joys and tribulations of 2026 with the confident hope of God's presence to us!

Christmas Thank Yous!

I would like to extend words of appreciation to so many people who made our celebration of Christmas here at OLV so special this year!

The parish music ministry does an extraordinary job - led by Joanna Connolly Pepe whose singing of O Holy Night leaves everyone in awe! Our organist, Steven Haufe accompanies her so beautifully!

The Parish Choir does a great job at our Advent Lessons & Carols and midnight Mass and throughout the year! Their dedication to their weekly rehearsals has a tremendous result as they lead us in praise of God through song!

Next I want to acknowledge the beauty of the church Christmas decorations. Country Arts of West Hempstead are our regular florists who do a great job of arranging the Christmas poinsettias. And it's Steven Haufe who sets up the creches inside and outside church and who together with Jane Parrinelli put up the trees and hang the wreaths and roping.

At this time of year all of our liturgical ministers - altar servers, ushers, EMs, and lectors put in extra time and effort. We all appreciate their dedication!

Thanks also to Deacon Larry and Father Daniel for making sure we had everything we needed liturgically for our three Mass locations.

Together with Father Daniel, I would like to thank all the parishioners who remember us at Christmas with cards, food and gifts!

Lastly, and most sincerely, I want to thank all of you who contributed so generously to the Christmas collections - the gift card drives, the flower collection and the Christmas collection. Your generosity provides the means for all the ministries of our parish. So on behalf of everyone who benefits, thank you!

Feast of the Epiphany

There is a traditional custom where homes are blessed on the Epiphany and the inscription : 20+C+M+B+26 is written on the front door with blessed chalk.

CMB stands for Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, the three Magi, as well as "Christus Mansionem Benedicat" which means "Christ bless this house."

We invite you to adopt this custom in your family. The family gathers to ask God's blessing on their home and on those who live in or visit the home. It is an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest in our home, our comings and our goings, our conversations, our work and play, our joys and sorrows.

Chalk is available in the vestibule after the Masses this weekend. The blessing, said by a parent, is as follows:

"May all who come to our home this year rejoice to find Christ living among us; and may we seek and serve, in everyone we meet, that same Jesus who is your Incarnate Word, now and forever. Amen.

Loving God, bless this household. May we be blessed with health, goodness of heart, gentleness and abiding in your will. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Praised be the name of Jesus Christ now and forever!

Fr. Tom
